DescriptionHULL ONLY PRICE

Introducing the Quintrex 350E Explorer Long Shaft, a versatile and lightweight vessel perfect for a variety of water adventures. With a length of 3.52 meters and a beam of 1.48 meters, this boat offers excellent stability and maneuverability. It can accommodate up to three people and is rated for a maximum of 15 horsepower, making it ideal for both solo outings and small group excursions.

The 350E Explorer Long Shaft features a higher transom for enhanced performance and increased horsepower capacity compared to the short-shaft version. Key features include a flat foredeck, solid corners, and convenient rowlock blocks for easy rowing. The boat also comes equipped with a glove box for secure storage, anchor gusset, and sturdy bow and transom handles for easy transport.
